Mr. George Bush, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

On behalf of the General Advisory Committee we would like to thank you and express the appreciation of the members for your appearing at the GAC meeting on July 29, 1976 and for your comments prior to the briefings by representatives from your agency.

The entire program presented by the CIA at the meeting was highly informative and professionally executed. The briefing provided the basis for much of the discussion during the GAC's executive session and other parts of the meeting.

Very truly yours,

Harry R. Marshall, Jr.
Office of the General Counsel

MEMORANDUM FOR: DDCI

Hank:

I made this out for your initial and conveyance, but somehow it was carried into the DCI, who initialed it. As LKW would say, "Suffice it to say" our letter carriers will be more attentive in the future.
